This is your first step to a positive future...

What chance do you get...
A second chance!

Care after Combat is here to help & guide you...

We can't get you out of prison any quicker, but what we can do is provide you with a Mentor who will become your best 'oppo', and help you plan for your future.

Your Mentor will help you find a job, somewhere to live and support you in making a fresh start.

When you were in the Armed Forces, belonging to a team was part of service life. Care after Combat offers you the chance to be part of a team again.

We can't help you unless you help us!

And who knows when this deployment is over, you may just be able to help another 'bloke' who is sitting where you are now.

Contact us today or speak with your Veteran Liaison Officer.

Care after Combat are your new 'mates'. And we will not let you down.
